Kevin Wade-----GOP Candidate for the People's Seat in the US Congress

LOSING AMERICA IS NOT AN OPTION!

Voices of "We the People"

The Only Option for Delaware:

Kevin Wade is a small business owner and engineer who has roots in Delaware and is loyal to its constituents. Wade earned a degree in electrical engineering from the University of Delaware and became a successful business owner in the first state by his own merit. Like so many other working class citizens, Wade has a real stake in the successes and failures of America's financial management. As a patriot, and someone who has strong family values, he also recognizes just how high the stakes are in 2010.

This election season is an opportunity for the residents of Delaware to convey the crucial message that government spending beyond its means is no longer acceptable or sustainable. Wade is the only sure conservative choice in Delaware for U.S. Congress and is committed not just to lowering taxes but to reducing obscene spending in Washington as well. Further, Wade is a steadfast supporter of the Bill of rights and the individual freedoms that have defined American culture and given way to American successes throughout history.

A vote for Kevin Wade for U.S. Congress in 2010 is a vote for substantive and crucial change. As a Delawarean who recognizes that there is great urgency for government to demonstrate fiscal responsibility, after decades of frivolous spending, I pledge my full support to Kevin Wade over all other potential candidates.
