Contributions to Wade for U.S. Senate are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. Federal law limits contributions from individuals to $2,500 per person per election or a total amount of $5,000 per election cycle. Federal multicandidate PACs may only contribute $5,000 per election -- which would be $10,000 per election cycle. Contributions from corporations, labor unions, federal-government contractors, national banks, and foreign nationals without permanent residency status are prohibited. Federal law requires Wade for Delaware to report the name, address, occupation, and employer of any contributor who gives more than $200 in an election cycle. By making this contribution, the contributor confirms that the following statements are true:

- They are a United States citizen or a permanent resident alien;
- They are making this contribution (and paying this credit charge) with personal funds;
- They are not using funds provided by any another person or from any corporation, labor union or national bank to make this contribution; they are not a federal contractor; they are making this contribution on their own personal credit card and not with a corporate or business credit card or a credit card issued to anyone else.

Contributions from Corporate or Union general treasuries, Federal Government contractors or Foreign National are not permitted.
